

PROCLAMATION.<sup>2</sup>

BY

HIS EXCELLENCY THE HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR SOUTH AFRICA.

No. 6, 1904.—DATED 24th FEBRUARY, 1904.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the working of Wireless Telegraphy within the Bechuanaland Protectorate:

Now, therefore, by virtue of the powers in me vested, I do hereby proclaim, declare and make known as follows:

Licence required for working wireless telegraphy.

1. No person shall establish or use any apparatus or installation for the transmission of messages or other communications by means of electrical energy without the aid of wires without having previously obtained a licence as hereinafter provided.

<sup>1</sup> For defined districts see High Commissioner's Notice No. 119 of 1923.

<sup>2</sup> See Proclamation 10 of 1927.

PROCLAMATIONS.

Amount of licence duty.

2. (1) It shall be lawful for the Resident Commissioner to authorise the issue of a licence for either of the purposes mentioned in section one and to revoke the same at any time, and there shall be payable in respect of such licence the sum of one hundred pounds.

High Commissioner may prescribe conditions.

(2) Every such licence shall be deemed to be granted upon such terms and conditions as the High Commissioner may from time to time prescribe by notice in the Gazette.

Penalty.

3. Any person who shall establish or use or attempt to establish or use any such apparatus or installation as is mentioned in section one in contravention of the provisions of this Proclamation shall be liable upon conviction to a penalty not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds, and in default of payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding three months, and in case of a second or subsequent conviction to a penalty not exceeding five hundred pounds, or in default of payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding six months.

Commencement of Proclamation.

4. This Proclamation shall take effect from the date of its publication in the Gazette.
