

BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

No. 38 of 1922.

[Promulgated 14th July, 1922.]

PROCLAMATION

By HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE HIGH COMMISSIONER

Providing that persons enrolled and entitled to practise as attorneys of the Courts of the Bechuanaland Protectorate shall although not resident in the said Protectorate be eligible as trustees of insolvent estates.

Whereas it is expedient to provide that persons enrolled and entitled to practise as attorneys of the Courts of the Bechuanaland Protectorate shall although not resident in the said Protectorate be eligible as trustees of any insolvent estate placed under sequestration by order of any such Court;

Now therefore under and by virtue of the powers in me vested I do hereby declare proclaim and make known as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding the provision contained in section forty-one of Ordinance No. 6 of 1843 of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope as amended by section six of the Insolvent Law Amendment Act 1884 (Act No. 38 of 1884) of the said Colony as in force in the Bechuanaland Protectorate which disqualifies for election as trustee of an insolvent estate in the said Protectorate any person not resident therein, any person duly enrolled and entitled to practise as an attorney of the Courts of the said Protectorate may though not resident therein be elected as trustee of any insolvent estate which has been placed under sequestration by order of any such Court provided that such person is not disqualified for election on any other ground, and provided further that any such person who is elected as trustee of any such insolvent estate shall immediately after his election choose for the purpose of his administration of the estate a domicilium citandi et executandi within the said Protectorate which shall be notified by him in the Gazette.

2. This Proclamation shall have force and take effect from the date of its publication in the Gazette.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Denstaat Camp, Northern Transvaal, this Twenty-ninth day of June One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty-two.

ARTHUR FREDERICK,
High Commissioner.

By Command of His Royal Highness the High Commissioner.

H. J. STANLEY,
Imperial Secretary.
