

HIGH COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE No. 87 OF 1926.

BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

DUMPING DUTY ON RUBBER HEELS FROM THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

It is hereby notified for general information that, under and by virtue of the powers in him vested by section fifteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925, of the Bechuanaland Protectorate, His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to declare that from and after the fifteenth day of July, 1926, there shall be charged, levied, collected, and paid on rubber heels on importation into the Bechuanaland Protectorate from the United States of America an "ordinary" dumping duty equal to the difference between--

- (a) the domestic value (viz., the market price at which at the time of purchase thereof by the importer such or similar rubber heels are offered for sale for consumption in the country from which they are exported to all purchasers in the usual wholesale quantities in the ordinary course of trade in the principal markets of such country, including the cost of packages ordinarily used in those markets, less any drawback of duty granted by the Government of the exporting country in respect of the rubber heels on exportation) plus the extra cost of packing and packages for export, carriage to port of shipment, and all other expenses incidental to placing the rubber heels on board ship ready for exportation to South Africa; and
- (b) the export price (viz., the price free on board at which the rubber heels are sold by the exporter to the importer in the Bechuanaland Protectorate);

provided that such duty shall not exceed one-half of the value of the rubber heels as defined in section fourteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925; and provided further that the provisions of this notice shall not apply to rubber heels which were exported to the Bechuanaland Protectorate from the United States of America prior to the date of publication thereof.

By Command of His Excellency the High Commissioner.

SHIRLEY EALES,
for Imperial Secretary.

High Commissioner's Office,
Capetown, 26th July, 1926.
