

HIGH COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE No. 96 of 1926.

BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

SALES DUMPING DUTY ON RUBBER HEELS FROM CANADA.

It is hereby notified for general information that, under and by virtue of the powers in him vested by section fifteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925, of the Bechuanaland Protectorate, His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to declare that from and after the thirtieth day of July, 1926, there shall be charged, levied, collected, and paid on rubber heels on importation into the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Canada a "sales" dumping duty equal to the difference between—

- (a) the selling price thereof in the Bechuanaland Protectorate or in the Union; and
- (b) the domestic value (viz., the market price at which at the time of purchase thereof by the importer such or similar rubber heels are offered for sale for consumption in the country from which they are exported to all purchasers in the usual wholesale quantities in the ordinary course of trade in the principal markets of such country, including the cost of packages ordinarily used in those markets, less any drawback of duty granted by the Government of the exporting country in respect of rubber heels on exportation), plus the extra cost of packing and packages for export, inland carriage, sea freight, insurance, and all charges to the port of entry in the Bechuanaland Protectorate or in the Union, including landing and delivery charges and the duty (other than a dumping duty) payable under the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925, or any amendment thereof; provided that the total of such dumping duty and the duty imposed under Notice No. 95 of 1926 shall not exceed one-half of the value of the goods as defined in section fourteen of the said Proclamation; and provided further that the provisions of this notice shall not apply to rubber heels which were exported to the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Canada prior to the date of publication thereof.

By Command of His Excellency the High Commissioner.

SHIRLEY EALES,

for Imperial Secretary.

High Commissioner's Office,
Capetown, 7th August, 1926.
