

HIGH COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE No. 130 of 1927.

BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

DUMPING DUTY ON RUBBER HOSE FROM CANADA.

It is hereby notified for general information that, under and by virtue of the powers in him vested by section fifteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925, of the Bechuanaland Protectorate, His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to declare that, from and after the fourth day of November, 1927, there shall be charged, levied, collected, and paid on—

(1) rock-drill hoses, viz., water and air; and

(2) delivery hoses, viz., water and pneumatic tool;

on importation into the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Canada "ordinary" dumping duty equal to the difference between—

(a) the domestic value (viz., the market price at which at the time of purchase thereof by the importer such or similar rubber hose is offered for sale for consumption in the country from which it is exported to all purchasers in the usual wholesale quantities in the ordinary course of trade in the principal markets of such country, including the cost of packages ordinarily used in those markets, less any drawback of duty granted by the Government of the exporting country in respect of the rubber hose on exportation), plus the extra cost of packing and packages for export, carriage to port of shipment, and all other expenses incidental to placing the rubber hose on board ship ready for exportation to South Africa; and

(b) the export price (viz., the price free on board at which the rubber hose is sold by the exporter to the importer in the Bechuanaland Protectorate);

provided that no dumping duty shall be imposed in respect of rubber hose shipped to the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Canada, prior to the above-mentioned date; and provided further that such duty, or where there is more than one form of dumping, the total of such duties shall not exceed one-half of the value of the rubber hose as defined in section fourteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925.

By Command of His Excellency
the High Commissioner.

B. E. H. CLIFFORD,

High Commissioner's Office, Imperial Secretary.
Capetown, 14th November, 1927.
