

HIGH COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE No. 131 of 1927.

BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

SALES DUMPING DUTY ON RUBBER HOSE FROM CANADA.

It is hereby notified for general information that, under and by virtue of the powers in him vested by section fifteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925, of the Bechuanaland Protectorate, His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to declare that, from and after the fourth day of November, 1927, there shall be charged, levied, collected, and paid on—

- (1) rock-drill hoses, viz., water and air; and
- (2) delivery hoses, viz., water and pneumatic tool;

on importation into the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Canada "sales" dumping duty equal to the difference between—

- (a) the selling price thereof in the Bechuanaland Protectorate or in the Union; and
- (b) the domestic value (viz., the market price at which at the time of purchase thereof by the importer such or similar rubber hose is offered for sale for consumption in the country from which it is exported to all purchasers in the usual wholesale quantities in the ordinary course of trade in the principal markets of such country, including the cost of packages ordinarily used in those markets, less any drawback of duty granted by the Government of the exporting country in respect of rubber hose on exportation) plus the extra cost of packing and packages for export, inland carriage, sea freight, insurance, and all charges to the port of entry in the Bechuanaland Protectorate or in the Union, including landing and delivery charges and the duty (other than a dumping duty) payable under Proclamation No. 20 of 1925 or any amendment thereof;

provided that the total of such dumping duty and the duty imposed under Notice No. 130 of 1927 shall not exceed one-half of the value of the goods as defined in section fourteen of the said Proclamation; and provided further that no dumping duty shall be imposed in respect of rubber hose shipped to the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Canada prior to the above-mentioned date.

By Command of His Excellency the High Commissioner.

B. E. H. CLIFFORD,

High Commissioner's Office,

Imperial Secretary.
