

HIGH COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE No. 88 of 1929.

BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

ADMISSION DUTY FREE OF CERTAIN ARTICLES.

It is hereby notified for general information that, under the powers vested in him by the Customs and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1929, His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to prescribe the following conditions subject to which the goods mentioned hereunder may be admitted free of Customs duty:—

PART I.

ANTIQUES AND WORKS OF ART.

Antiques and works of art will be admitted free of duty under item 328 (b) of the Customs Tariff, provided the importer complies with the following conditions:—

- (a) Makes a declaration on the face of the relative bill of entry presented to the Customs Department at the time of importation or clearance from bond that the articles are antiques or works of art which were produced or manufactured more than one hundred years ago; and
- (b) produces a certificate to the same effect from the supplier in the country from which the articles were exported to the Union or the territory except that in the case of such articles being purchased in and imported from a country outside the Union or the territory the certificate by the supplier shall be in the form set out hereunder, and shall in respect of goods from the United Kingdom bear an endorsement signed by the President or Secretary of the British Antique Dealers' Association, and in respect of goods from other countries the endorsement shall be signed by a responsible executive officer of a national institute for the encouragement of applied arts or by such other official specially appointed for that purpose in the country from which the goods were exported.
