

Amended by H's N. 106 x 1930.

HIGH COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE No. 11 of 1930.

It is hereby notified for general information that, under and by virtue of the powers in him vested by section one of the Bechuanaland Protectorate Exportation of Cattle Amendment Proclamation (No. 3 of 1930), His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to make the following regulations:—

By Command of His Excellency the High Commissioner.

B. E. H. CLIFFORD,
Imperial Secretary.

High Commissioner's Office,
Capetown, 31st January, 1930.

*N.P.W.
1930*

1. No person shall truck or cause to be trucked from ~~Transvaal, Shashi~~, Palapye Road or Mahalapye Station or from any other Railway Station or Siding in the territory which the Resident Commissioner may by notice in the Gazette appoint (hereinafter referred to as "the Stations") any horned cattle consigned or intended to be consigned to Johannesburg or any other approved Union Abattoir (hereinafter referred to as "the abattoir") which have not within a period of twenty-four hours prior to trucking been weighed over the weighbridge provided for that purpose, and the weight of which has not been recorded by the official charged with that duty. Any person contravening this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds or in default of payment of such fine to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding one month for every head of cattle trucked or caused to be trucked by him in contravention of this regulation.

2. Every head of horned cattle that has been consigned to the abattoir from any station in the territory shall be branded with a brand which shall be provided for the purpose by the Chief Veterinary Officer, and shall be placed in the truck under the supervision of a member of the Bechuanaland Protectorate Police, who shall seal the truck with the recognized leaden seal before it leaves the station. Any person contravening this regulation or any person who by his act or omission is accessory to a contravention of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds or in default of payment of such fine to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding one month for every head of cattle trucked in contravention of this regulation.

3. ~~The owner of any cattle intended to be trucked from the stations for the purpose of export from the territory to the abattoir shall be liable to pay a fee not exceeding one shilling in respect of every head of the said cattle weighed over the weighbridges provided for that purpose; and an additional fee of sixpence a head for the services rendered as provided in paragraph 2 of these regulations.~~

4. The owner of any cattle weighed at any of the stations at the owner's own request apart from the weighing required under paragraph 1 of these regulations shall, if he is not the owner of the weighbridge, be liable to pay a fee not exceeding one shilling in respect of every head of cattle so weighed.

5. The fees leviable under regulations 3 and 4 shall be paid before the cattle leave the station or at the time of the sealing of the truck.

These regulations shall have force and effect from a date to be fixed by the High Commissioner by notice in the Gazette.
