

HIGH COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE No. 148 of 1930.

BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

DUMPING DUTY ON GLASS BOTTLES FROM HOLLAND AND CZECHO SLOVAKIA.

It is hereby notified for general information that, under and by virtue of the powers in him vested by section fifteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation No. 20 of 1925, as amended, His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to declare that, from and after the twenty-fifth day of November, 1930, there shall be charged, levied, collected and paid on glass bottles on importation into the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Holland and Czecho Slovakia an "ordinary" dumping duty equal to the difference between—

- (a) the domestic value (viz., the market price at which at the time of purchase thereof by the importer such or similar glass bottles are offered for sale for consumption in the country from which they are exported to all purchasers in the usual wholesale quantities in the ordinary course of trade in the principal markets of such country, including the cost of packages ordinarily used in those markets, less any drawback of duty granted by the Government of the exporting country in respect of the glass bottles on exportation), plus the extra cost of packing and packages for export, carriage to port of shipment, and all other expenses incidental to placing the glass bottles on board ship ready for exportation to the Bechuanaland Protectorate; and
- (b) the export price (viz., the price free on board at which the glass bottles are sold by the exporter to the importer in the Bechuanaland Protectorate);

provided that such duty shall not exceed one-half of the value of the glass bottles as defined in section fourteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925, as amended, and provided further that such dumping duty shall not be imposed in respect of glass bottles shipped to the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Holland and Czecho Slovakia prior to the above-mentioned date.

By Command of His Excellency the High Commissioner.

B. E. H. CLIFFORD,
Imperial Secretary.

High Commissioner's Office,
Pretoria, 9th December, 1930.
