

HIGH COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE No. 131 OF 1932.

BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

DUMPING DUTY ON RUBBER SOLES FROM THE UNITED KINGDOM.

It is hereby notified for general information that, under and by virtue of the powers in him vested by section fifteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation No. 20 of 1925, as amended, His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to declare that, from and after the twenty-fourth day of August, 1932, there shall be charged, levied, collected and paid on rubber soles on importation into the Bechuanaland Protectorate from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland an "ordinary" dumping duty equal to the difference between—

- (a) the domestic value (viz., the market price at which at the time of purchase thereof by the importer such or similar rubber soles are offered for sale for consumption in the country from which they are exported to all purchasers in the usual wholesale quantities in the ordinary course of trade in the principal markets of such country, including the cost of packages ordinarily used in those markets, less any drawback of duty granted by the Government of the exporting country in respect of the rubber soles on exportation) plus the extra cost of packing and packages for export, carriage to port of shipment, and all other expenses, incidental to placing the rubber soles on board ship ready for exportation to the Bechuanaland Protectorate; and
- (b) the export price (viz., the price free on board at which the rubber soles are sold by the exporter to the importer in the Bechuanaland Protectorate);

provided that such duty shall not exceed one-half of the value of the rubber soles as defined in section fourteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925, as amended, and provided further that such dumping duty shall not be imposed in respect of rubber soles shipped to the Bechuanaland Protectorate from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland prior to the above-mentioned date.

By Command of His Excellency
the High Commissioner.

SHIRLEY FALES,
Acting Imperial Secretary.
High Commissioner's Office,
Pretoria, 10th September, 1932.
