

HIGH COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE No. 189 OF 1932.

BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

CUSTOMS.

DUMPING DUTY ON CONDENSED MILK
FROM HOLLAND.

It is hereby notified for general information that, under and by virtue of the powers in him vested by section fifteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, No. 20 of 1925, as amended, His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to declare that, from and after the ninth day of December, 1932, there shall be charged, levied, collected, and paid on sweetened and unsweetened condensed milk on importation into the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Holland an "ordinary" dumping duty equal to the difference between—

- (a) the domestic value (viz., the market price at which at the time of purchase thereof by the importer such or similar sweetened or unsweetened condensed milk is offered for sale for consumption in the country from which it is exported to all purchasers in the usual wholesale quantities in the ordinary course of trade in the principal markets of such country, including the cost of packages ordinarily used in those markets, less any drawback of duty granted by the Government of the exporting country in respect of sweetened or unsweetened condensed milk on exportation) plus the extra cost of packing and packages for export, carriage to port of shipment, and all other expenses incidental to placing the condensed milk on board ship ready for exportation to the Bechuanaland Protectorate; and
- (b) the export price (viz., the price free on board at which the sweetened or unsweetened condensed milk is sold by the exporter to the importer in the Bechuanaland Protectorate);

provided that such duty shall not exceed one-half of the value of the condensed milk as defined in section fourteen of the Customs Tariff and Excise Duties Amendment Proclamation, 1925, as amended, and provided further that such dumping duty shall not be imposed in respect of condensed milk shipped to the Bechuanaland Protectorate from Holland prior to the abovementioned date.

By Command of His Excellency the High Commissioner.

SHIRLEY EALES,
Administrative Secretary.

High Commissioner's Office,
Capetown,
21st December, 1932.
