IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Attention is drawn to the provisions of the above-mentioned Proclamation and in particular to :—

Section 14 : Right of recourse by insurer.

Section 15 : Notice to be given in writing of use of insured motor vehicle in manner not contemplated when insurance was effected and penalty for non-compliance. (See Annexure.)

Section 17 : Termination of insurance—especially upon change in manner or purpose of use or alteration of an insured motor vehicle or upon transfer of ownership. Sub-section (2) required that when the owner transfers his ownership of an insured motor vehicle he must remove from it the token of insurance which he must return to the insurance company and inform it of the name and address of the transferee.

and to section 22 : Giving information of accident to insurer and third party, which reads—

“(1) When, as the result of the driving of a motor vehicle insured under this Proclamation, any person other than the driver of that motor vehicle was killed or injured, the owner and the driver (if he is not the owner) of the motor vehicle shall as soon as may be after the occurrence inform the registered company which insured the vehicle of the occurrence and of the place and time of the occurrence and shall furnish it with the name and address (if known) of any person who was killed or injured and of every person who was upon the vehicle in question at the time of the occurrence, with a description of any other vehicle involved in the occurrence with the name and address (if known) of the driver of every such other vehicle and of any other person who witnessed the occurrence and with any other reasonable information at his disposal in regard to the occurrence which the registered company may from time to time request him to furnish.

“(2) When, as a result of the driving of a motor vehicle insured under this Proclamation, any person other than the driver of that motor vehicle was killed or injured, the owner of the motor vehicle shall, at the request of any person or of the agent of any person, who has suffered any loss or damage as a result of the death of the person so killed, or at the request of the person so injured (or at the request of his agent) produce to the person making the request, the declaration of insurance whereby the motor vehicle was insured at the time of the occurrence in question, and a copy of any information which the said owner furnished to the registered company concerned in terms of sub-section (1) (other than such information which the owner was not obliged to furnish except at the request of the registered company concerned) and permit the person who made the request to make a copy of the declaration of insurance and of any such information or take an extract therefrom.

“(3) If the owner or driver of an insured motor vehicle which was involved in an occurrence mentioned in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) fails to comply, within a reasonable time after having become aware of the occurrence, with any requirement of sub-section (1), or fails to comply with any requirement of sub-section (2), he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds, unless he is unable to comply with such requirement and his inability is not due to his own action or default.”

Section twenty-two of the Proclamation reads--

" Giving information of accident to insurer and third party :--

(1) When, as the result of the driving of a motor vehicle insured under this Proclamation, any person other than the driver of that motor vehicle was killed or injured, the owner and the driver (if he is not the owner) of the motor vehicle shall, as soon as may be after the occurrence inform the registered company which insured the vehicle of the occurrence and of the place and time of the occurrence and shall furnish it with the name and address (if known) of any person who was killed or injured and of every person who was upon the vehicle in question at the time of the occurrence, with a description of any other vehicle involved in the occurrence with the name and address (if known) of the driver of every such other vehicle and of any other person who witnessed the occurrence and with any other reasonable information at his disposal in regard to the occurrence which the registered company may from time to time request him to furnish.

(2) When as a result of the driving of a motor vehicle insured under this Proclamation, any person other than the driver of that motor vehicle was killed or injured, the owner of the motor vehicle shall, at the request of any person or of the agent of any person, who has suffered any loss or damage as a result of the death of the person so killed, or at the request of the person injured (or at the request of his agent) produce to the person making the request, the declaration of insurance whereby the motor vehicle was insured at the time of the occurrence in question, and a copy of any information which the said owner furnished to the registered company concerned in terms of sub-section (1) (other than such information which the owner was not obliged to furnish except at the request of the registered company concerned) and permit the person who made the request to make a copy of the declaration of insurance and of any such information or take an extract therefrom.

(3) If the owner or driver of an insured motor vehicle which was involved in an occurrence mentioned in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) fails to comply, within a reasonable time after having become aware of the occurrence, with any requirement of sub-section (1), or fails to comply with any requirement of sub-section (2), he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds unless he is unable to comply with such requirement and his inability is not due to his own action or default."
