Entitlement to compensation.

2.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, every entitled officer shall, at the operative date or, in the case of a person who becomes an entitled officer after that date, at the date on which he becomes an entitled officer, become entitled to compensation which shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph and at each assessment shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of his annual pensionable emoluments on the date in relation to which the assessment is made by the appropriate factor and the resulting amount, or twelve thousand pounds, whichever is the less, shall be the amount to which he is entitled.

(2) The compensation of each entitled officer under this paragraph shall, if it has not already been provisionally assessed, be provisionally

(4) When the compensation of any entitled officer is provisionally assessed or re-assessed or is finally assessed, he (or, in the case of an officer who has died, his personal representative) shall thereupon be given a statement showing the amount of the compensation to which, in accordance with that provisional assessment or re-assessment or final assessment, he is entitled.

Provided that if an entitled officer gives such an undertaking after a payment has been made to him under this sub-paragraph, but not later than twelve months after the date in relation to which his compensation was provisionally assessed he shall be paid as soon as is reasonably practicable after the date on which he gave that undertaking and in any case within three months of that date, an amount which when added to the amount already paid to him equals the amount he would have been paid under this sub-paragraph if he had given that undertaking before any payment had been made to him under this sub-paragraph.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 12 of this Schedule, a further payment shall be made to every person who has become entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule and who has not already received the whole of that compensation (whether that person is serving as an entitled officer or has retired) upon each anniversary of the date in relation to which his compensation was assessed under sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph, which—

  - (ii) where the balance so outstanding is less than five hundred pounds, or, in the case of an officer to whom sub-paragraph (1)(a) of this paragraph applies, where that balance exceeds five hundred pounds but would not, if added to the amount of compensation already paid under this paragraph, exceed two thousand pounds, an amount equal to that balance shall be paid.

Special gratuity on the death of certain officers.

Provided that, in the case of an officer to whom Part III of the Second Schedule to the Pensions (Consolidation) Law, 1965 of Botswana applied, in respect of that proportion of the pension for which he would have been eligible, if he had retired under this Schedule at the date of his death and which is attributable to his pensionable service otherwise than in the public service the provisions of paragraph 10(1)(c) of this Schedule shall not apply and the permitted fraction referred to in that paragraph shall not be less than three-quarters.

(2) For the purposes of the proviso to sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph the proportion of a pension which is attributable to the pensionable service of an officer otherwise than in Botswana shall be that proportion of the pension for which the officer would have been eligible if his pensionable service had been wholly in Botswana as the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments during his pensionable service otherwise than in Botswana bears to the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments throughout his pensionable service.

(3) The Financial Secretary to the Government, may direct that instead of being paid to the personal representatives, any gratuity payable under this paragraph shall be paid to one of the dependants of the deceased or to two or more of those dependants in such proportions as the Financial Secretary may think fit.

(b) if the amount of compensation he has already received under this Schedule exceeds the amount of compensation to which he is entitled under this paragraph, the excess shall forthwith become repayable, but in any such case any interest received on account of such excess shall not be repayable.

Transfer to other public service.

8.—(1) This paragraph applies to an entitled officer who is transferred from the public service—

(a) to the service of a government or authority that is a Scheduled Government for the purposes of Part III of the Second Schedule to the Botswana Pensions (Consolidation) Laws, 1965 in circumstances in which he remains eligible for the grant of a pension under the appropriate law upon his eventual retirement;

(b) to service in the office of Governor in such circumstances that he is or may become eligible for a pension under the Governors' Pensions Act 1957(a):

Provided that—

(a) it does not apply to an officer to whom paragraph 7 of this Schedule applies;

(b) it applies to any officer—

(i) who but for the provisions of paragraph 1(4) of this Schedule, would be an entitled officer; and

(ii) who in the opinion of the appropriate Service Commission, would have had a reasonable prospect of becoming an entitled officer if no constitutional changes had been introduced; and

(iv) who returns to pensionable employment under the Government of the United Kingdom in a public office as defined in the Superannuation Act 1892.

(2) An officer to whom this paragraph applies shall cease to be entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule, but if the amount of his annual pensionable emoluments immediately before his transfer exceeds the amount of the annual emoluments payable to him immediately after his transfer (being emoluments that may be taken into account for the purposes of his pension under the law or regulations relating to his service in that other public service) he shall be entitled to compensation equal to—

- (a) the amount of the excess multiplied by the appropriate factor; or
- (b) the amount he would receive if he were entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule, having retired on the date of his transfer, whichever is the less.

(3) If the provisions of this paragraph become applicable to any person, his compensation shall forthwith be re-assessed, and—

- (a) if the amount of compensation as so re-assessed exceeds the amount he has already received under this Schedule, the balance of compensation then outstanding shall be paid, together with any unpaid interest that has accrued under that paragraph before the re-assessment, in the manner prescribed by paragraph 3 of this Schedule for the payment of compensation assessed under paragraph 2 of this Schedule; or
- (b) if the amount of compensation which has already been received under that paragraph exceeds the amount of compensation to which he is entitled under this paragraph, the excess shall forthwith become repayable, but in any such case any interest received on account of such excess shall not be repayable.

Penalties for breach of undertakings.

(2) If an entitled officer has been granted promotion in the public service after the operative date upon his giving an undertaking to serve upon such conditions as may be prescribed by the appropriate Service Commission for any period ceases to serve in accordance with the terms of that undertaking at any time before the end of the period to which the undertaking relates otherwise than with the consent of the Government or by reason of his death or his retirement in circumstances beyond his control, then the amount of compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 of this Schedule shall be re-assessed and the amount of his compensation shall be determined as if his annual pensionable emoluments in relation to the date of his promotion or any subsequent date were the amount of the pensionable emoluments which would have been used in accordance with Regulation 18 of the Second Schedule to the Pensions (Consolidation) Law, 1965 for the purpose of pension as if he had retired on that date.

(3) If any of the provisions of this paragraph become applicable to any entitled officer, his compensation shall be re-assessed accordingly and paid in accordance with paragraph 3 of this Schedule and if the amount of compensation he has already received under that paragraph exceeds the amount of compensation to which he is entitled under the re-assessment the excess shall forthwith become repayable.

and gratuities.

10.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 15 and 16 of this Schedule, an entitled officer, on his retirement under this Schedule, may be granted at his option (such option to be exercised in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 24 of the Second Schedule to the Pensions (Consolidation) Law, 1965) either—

(a) a pension of such amount as may be granted under the appropriate law;

(b) a reduced pension equal to such fraction as he may desire of the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law (not being, in the case of an officer who retires within twelve years of the operative date, less than the permitted fraction) together with a gratuity equal to the annual amount of the remaining fraction of that pension multiplied by the appropriate factor; or

(c) in the case of an officer who retires not less than twelve years after the operative date, a gratuity equal to the annual amount of the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law multiplied by the appropriate factor.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph an officer shall be deemed to be eligible for the grant of a pension under the appropriate law—

(a) notwithstanding that he may have retired before attaining the age specified in the appropriate law as qualifying him for the grant of a pension; and

(b) notwithstanding that he may not have completed at the date of his retirement the period of qualifying service required by the appropriate law to render him eligible for the grant of a pension.

(3) Where an officer retires by reason of injury or ill health in circumstances in which he could under the appropriate law be granted an additional pension the provisions of this paragraph shall have effect in relation to that officer as if references to the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law included references to that additional pension.

(4) Where an officer to whom this paragraph applies retires in consequence of the abolition of his office or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the part of the public service to which he belongs by which greater economy or efficiency may be effected in circumstances in which he could under the appropriate law be granted an additional pension, the provisions of this paragraph shall have effect in relation to that officer as if references to the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law did not include references to that additional pension.

(5) For the purposes of this paragraph the amount of the pension or gratuity that an officer who is required to retire in the circumstances described in paragraph 4(4)(c) or (e) or paragraph 5 of this Schedule or on the grounds of age before attaining the age of fifty-five years may be granted under the appropriate law shall be calculated by reference to the full annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him on the date immediately prior to his retirement.

(6) If an officer has not exercised the option conferred upon him by sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph within the period in which it is required to be exercised he shall be deemed to have opted for the grant of a pension of such amount as may be granted under the appropriate law.

(7) In this paragraph—

“the appropriate factor” in relation to an officer means the factor obtained from Table III of the Annex to this Schedule that is appropriate to the age of that officer on the date immediately prior to his retirement reckoned in completed years and completed months;

“the permitted fraction”—

(a) in relation to an officer who retires within one year of the operative date, means three-quarters;

(b) in relation to an additional pension granted on account of injury under Regulation 23(1) of the Second Schedule to the Pensions (Consolidation) Law, 1965, means three-quarters; and

(c) subject to head (b) of this definition, in relation to an officer who retires within not less than one and not more than twelve years of the operative date, means such fraction as is obtained by subtracting one-sixteenth for each complete year of his pensionable service after the operative date from three-quarters;

Provided that in reckoning for the purposes of this sub-paragraph the years of pensionable service of an officer who is granted leave of absence pending his retirement, leave of absence granted in respect of service prior to the operative date the enjoyment of which had on the operative date been deferred shall not be taken into account.

Special provisions as to payment of compensation.

(2) In this paragraph "the appropriate factor" has the same meaning as in paragraph 10 of this Schedule:

(b) an entitled officer who has not already received the whole of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 retires in the circumstances described in paragraph 4(4)(a), (c) or (d) of this Schedule before he has attained that age or is required to retire in the circumstances described in paragraph 4(4)(b) of this Schedule; or

(2) Whenever an entitled officer, who has not already received the whole of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 of this Schedule, is required to retire under section 12 of the Botswana Independence Order 1966 before attaining the age of fifty-five years, the balance then outstanding of the compensation to which he is entitled under that paragraph shall be paid to him—

- III. Add i(a) and II.
- IV. Repeat steps to III for the officer's age at his next birthday.
- V. Divide the difference between III and IV by twelve and multiply by the number of completed months of age, if any, since the officer's last birthday.
- VI. If IV is greater than III, add V to III.
If IV is less than III subtract V from III.
VI is the factor required.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR OBTAINING THE APPROPRIATE FACTOR FROM

TABLE II OR III

- I. Read off from the Table the factors for the officer's age—
  - (a) at his last birthday;
  - (b) at his next birthday.
- II. Divide the difference between I(a) and I(b) by twelve and multiply by the number of completed months of age since the last birthday.
- III. If I(b) is greater than I(a), add II to I(a).
If I(b) is less than I(a), subtract II from I(a).
III is the factor required.

In calculating factors by interpolation in respect of Tables I to III the calculations should be rounded off to two decimal points and where this results in a difference of point nought one in either direction such difference should be ignored.
