

Statutory Instrument No. 44 of 1969

THE STATISTICS ACT, 1967

THE STATISTICS (CONSUMER PRICES) REGULATIONS, 1969

(Published on 21st March, 1969)

In the exercise of the powers vested in him by section 14, read with sections 3 and 5 of the Statistics Act, 1967 (No. 38 of 1967), the Vice-President makes the following Regulations —

Citation and Commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Statistics (Consumer Prices) Regulations, 1969, and shall come into operation on 24th March, 1969.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations —

“services” shall be deemed to include board and lodging, insurance, and entertainment by way of sporting events or otherwise, but shall not include professional services;

“supplier” means a person who carries on as principal or agent a business of supplying or contracting to supply for payment or reward and otherwise than by wholesale goods, commodities or services, and in the case of any such business wholly or partially carried on by means of branches situated at several premises “supplier” includes the person in charge of any such branch.

Particulars and Information to be Furnished by Supplier

3. (1) Any supplier in the places named in the First and Second Schedules shall, when required by an authorised officer, furnish him with the current prices charged by such supplier for any description of goods, commodities or services dealt in or supplied by him, which particulars or information may be collected as hereinafter provided.

(2) In the places named in the First Schedule the particulars or information to be furnished may be collected in the last seven days of each month.

(3) In the places named in the Second Schedule the particulars or information to be furnished may be collected in the last seven days of each quarter.

(4) The particulars or information to be furnished may be collected from a supplier during ordinary business hours at his place of business.
