

Statutory Instrument No. 90 of 1971

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (DISTRICT COUNCILS) LAW, 1965
(35 of 1965)

LIVESTOCK CONTROL (MODEL) BYE-LAWS, 1971

(Published on the 30th July, 1971)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 36 of the Local Government (District Councils) Law, 1965 the Minister of Local Government and Lands has caused the following model bye-laws to be made —

Citation	1. These bye-laws may be cited as the Livestock Control (Model) Bye-Laws, 1971.
Inter-pretation	2. In these bye-laws, unless the context otherwise requires — “District Council” means any district council which has adopted these bye-laws; “livestock” means any domestic bovine animal, goat, sheep, swine, horse, donkey or mule; “owner” means in relation to any animal, in addition to its ordinary meaning, any person having the charge, custody or control of any animal and the occupier of any premises where any animal is kept or permitted to remain; “poultry” means any fowl, turkey, goose or duck; “stable” includes a cowshed, stall, pen and sty.
Keeping of livestock	3. (1) The District Council may prohibit the use for the keeping of livestock of any stable, cowshed, pen or site which in the opinion of the District Council is unfit, undesirable or objectionable by reason of its locality, construction, condition or manner of use. (2) This bye-law shall not apply to any animal subject to the provisions of the Matimela Act, 1968 or any regulations made thereunder.
Troublesome or dangerous animals	4. No person shall allow any wild, troublesome, ferocious or dangerous dog, monkey, carnivorous wild animal or reptile to be at large off the premises on which such animal normally is kept.
Bees, pigeons and poultry	5. No person shall keep any bees, pigeons or poultry so as to disturb the comfort of the inhabitants of the area of jurisdiction of the District Council.
Enforcement	6. The District Council may by resolution request the assistance of any person or organisation for the better carrying out of the provisions of these bye-laws.
Penalties	7. Any person who fails to comply with these bye-laws or hinders any employee of the District Council performing his duties under these bye-laws shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of R10 or, in default thereof, to imprisonment for seven days and shall in the case of a second or subsequent conviction be liable to a fine of R25 or, in default thereof, to imprisonment for twenty-five days.

Dated this 20th day of July, 1971.
