PART 1 — Preliminary

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act, 1990.

Inter-pretation

2. (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires — “approved form” means a form approved by the Attorney-General in writing for the purposes of the provision in which the expression occurs;

“arrangement” includes a convention, protocol, agreement, scheme, or treaty;

“committal proceeding”, in relation to a foreign offence, includes —

(a) any proceeding to determine whether a person should be tried for the offence (whether or not a particular person is specified at the commencement of that proceeding as the person in relation to whom the determination is to be made); and

(b) a proceeding that is, in accordance with the regulations, to be taken to be a committal proceeding for the purposes of this Act;

“confiscation order” has the meaning assigned to it under section 5 of the Proceeds of Serious Crimes Act, 1990;

“criminal investigation” means an investigation into an offence (whether the offence is believed to have been committed, to be being committed or to be likely to be committed);

“criminal matter” includes —

- (a) a criminal matter relating to taxation, customs duties or other revenue matter or relating to foreign exchange control;
- (b) a matter relating to the forfeiture or confiscation of property in respect of an offence; and
- (c) a matter relating to the restraining of dealings in property, or the freezing of assets, that may be forfeited or confiscated in respect of an offence, whether arising under the laws of Botswana or a law of a foreign country;

“criminal proceeding”, in relation to an offence, means a trial of a person for the offence or a committal proceeding in respect of offence;

“financial institution” has the same meaning as in the Financial Institutions Act;

“foreign forfeiture order” means an order, made under the law of a foreign country, for the forfeiture of property in respect of an offence against the law of that country;

“foreign prisoner” means a person who is being held in custody pending trial for or sentence for, or is under a sentence of imprisonment for, an offence against a law of a foreign country, but does not include a person who is at large after having escaped from lawful custody;

“foreign restraining order” means an order, made under the law of a foreign country, restraining a particular person, or all persons, from dealing with property, being an order made in respect of an offence against the law of that country;

“foreign offence” means an offence against a law of a foreign country;

“foreign serious offence” means a serious offence against a law of a foreign country;

“magistrate” means any person appointed as a Magistrate Grade I or over in accordance with the Magistrates’ Courts Act;

“money laundering offence” has the meaning assigned to it under section 14 of the Proceeds of Serious Crime Act, 1990;

“offence” includes an offence against a law relating to taxation, customs duties or other revenue matters or relating to foreign exchange control;

“offence under the ordinary criminal law of Botswana” means an offence against the laws of Botswana other than an offence under the military law of Botswana;

“police officer” means a member of the Botswana Police Force;

“premises” includes —

Cap. 46:04

Cap. 04:04

- (a) a structure, building, aircraft, vehicle or vessel;
- (b) a place (whether enclosed or built upon or not); and
- (c) a part of premises (including premises of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) or (b));

“prison” includes gaol, lock-up or other place of detention;

“production order” has the meaning assigned to it under section 17 of the Proceeds of Serious Crime Act, 1990;

“restraining order” has the meaning assigned to it under section 8 of the Proceeds of Serious Crime Act, 1990;

“serious offence” has the meaning assigned to it under section 2 the Proceeds of Serious Crime Act, 1990;

“tainted property”, in relation to an offence, means —

- (a) property used in, or in connection with, the commission of the offence; or
- (b) proceeds of the offence.

(2) Where in this Act reference is made to the Commissioner of Police, such reference shall be deemed to include any person specially or generally authorized by the Commissioner of Police in that regard.

Application of Act

3. (1) Where an arrangement has been made with a foreign country for mutual assistance in criminal matters, the Minister may by statutory instrument make regulations that this Act shall apply to that country.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may provide that the application of this Act to a foreign country shall be subject to such limitations, conditions, exceptions or qualifications as are necessary to give effect to an arrangement made between Botswana and that country.

Object of Act

4. The object of this Act is to facilitate the provision and obtaining by Botswana of international assistance in criminal matters, including —

- (a) the obtaining of evidence, documents or other articles;
- (b) the provision of documents and other records;
- (c) the location and identification of witnesses or suspects;
- (d) the execution of requests for search and seizure;
- (e) the making of arrangements for persons to give evidence or assist investigations;
- (f) the confiscation of property in respect of offences;
- (g) the recovery of pecuniary penalties in respect of offences;
- (h) the restraining of dealings in property, or the freezing of assets, that may be confiscated, or that may be needed to satisfy pecuniary penalties imposed, in respect of offences;
- (i) the location of property that may be confiscated, or that may be needed to satisfy pecuniary penalties imposed, in respect of offences; and
- (j) the service of documents.

Refusal of assistance

5. (1) A request by a foreign country for assistance under this Act shall be refused if, in the opinion of the Attorney-General —

- (a) the request relates to the prosecution or punishment of a person for an offence that is, or is by reason of the circumstances in which it is alleged to have been committed or was committed, an offence of a political character;

- (b) subject to subsection (3), there are substantial grounds for believing that the request has been made with a view to prosecuting or punishing a person for an offence of a political character;
  - (c) there are substantial grounds for believing that the request was made for the purpose of prosecuting, punishing or otherwise causing prejudice to a person on account of his race, sex, religion, nationality or political opinions;
  - (d) the request relates to the prosecution or punishment of a person in respect of an act or omission that if it had occurred in Botswana, would have constituted an offence under the military law of Botswana but not also under the ordinary criminal law of Botswana;
  - (e) the granting of the request would prejudice the sovereignty, security or national interest of Botswana;
  - (f) the request relates to the prosecution of a person for an offence in a case where he has been acquitted or pardoned by a competent tribunal or authority in the foreign country, or has undergone the punishment provided by the law of that country, in respect of that offence or of another offence constituted by the same act or omission as that offence; or
  - (g) except in the case of a request under section 10, the foreign country is not a country to which this Act applies.
- (2) A request by a foreign country for assistance under this Act may be refused if, in the opinion of the Attorney-General —
- (a) the request relates to the prosecution or punishment of a person in respect of an act or omission that, if it had occurred in Botswana, would not have constituted an offence against the laws of Botswana;
  - (b) the request relates to the prosecution or punishment of a person in respect of an act or omission that occurred, or is alleged to have occurred, outside the foreign country and a similar act or omission occurring outside Botswana in similar circumstances would not have constituted an offence against the laws of Botswana;
  - (c) the request relates to the prosecution or punishment of a person in respect of an act or omission where, if it had occurred in Botswana at the same time and had constituted an offence against the laws of Botswana, the person responsible could no longer be prosecuted by reason of lapse of time or any other reason;
  - (d) the provision of the assistance could prejudice an investigation or proceeding in relation to a criminal matter in Botswana;
  - (e) the provision of the assistance would, or would be likely to, prejudice the safety of any person (whether in or outside Botswana); or
  - (f) the provision of the assistance would impose an excessive burden on the resources of the State.

- (3) An offence is not an offence of a political character —
- (a) if it is an offence in accordance with the provisions of any international convention to which Botswana and the foreign country to which this Act applies are parties and there is an obligation on each party to afford mutual assistance in investigation and prosecution of such offence;
  - (b) if it is an offence against the life or person of a Head of State or a member of his immediate family, a Head of Government, or a Minister or any related offence;
  - (c) if it is murder or any related offence.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b) and (c), “related offence” means aiding and abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of, being an accessory before or after the fact to, or attempting or conspiring to commit that offence.

Assistance
may be provided subject to conditions Request by Botswana

6. Assistance under this Act may be provided to a foreign country subject to such conditions as the Attorney-General may determine.

7. Requests by Botswana for international assistance in criminal matters may be made by the Attorney-General.

Request by foreign country

8. (1) A request by a foreign country for international assistance in a criminal matter may be made to the Attorney-General or a person authorised by the Attorney-General, in writing, to receive requests by foreign countries under this Act.

- (2) A request made under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by —
- (a) the name of the authority concerned with the criminal matter to which the request relates;
  - (b) a description of the nature of the criminal matter and a statement setting out a summary of the relevant facts and laws;
  - (c) a description of the purpose of the request and of the nature of the assistance being sought;
  - (d) details of the procedure that the foreign country wishes to be followed by Botswana in giving effect to the request, including details of the manner and form in which any information, document or thing is to be supplied to the foreign country pursuant to the request;
  - (e) a statement setting out the wishes of the foreign country concerning the confidentiality of the request and the reasons for those wishes;
  - (f) details of the period within which the foreign country wishes the request be complied with;
  - (g) if the request involves a person travelling from Botswana to the foreign country, details of allowances to which the person will be entitled, and of the arrangements for accommodation for the person, while the person is in the foreign country pursuant to the request;
  - (h) any other information required to be included with the request

under an arrangement between Botswana and the foreign country; and

- (i) any other information that may assist in giving effect to the request; but failure to comply with this subsection is not a ground for refusing the request.

(3) Where a request by a foreign country is made to a person authorised under subsection (1), the request shall be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have been made to the Attorney-General.

PART II — Assistance in Relation to taking of Evidence and Production of Documents or other Articles

9. The Attorney-General may in writing request an appropriate authority of a foreign country to arrange for —

Requests by
Botswana

- (a) evidence to be taken in the foreign country; or
- (b) documents or other articles in the foreign country to be produced, for the purposes of a proceeding in relation to a criminal matter in Botswana.

10. (1) Where a request is made by a foreign country that —

Requests by foreign countries

- (a) evidence be taken in Botswana; or
- (b) documents or other articles in Botswana be produced, for the purposes of a proceeding in relation to a criminal matter in the foreign country, the Attorney-General may by writing in accordance with the approved form, authorise the taking of the evidence or the production of the documents or other articles, and the transmission of the evidence, documents or other articles to the foreign country.

(2) Where the Attorney-General authorises the taking of evidence or the production of documents or other articles under subsection (1) —

- (a) in the case of taking evidence, a magistrate may take the evidence on oath of each witness appearing before him to give evidence in relation to the matter, and a magistrate who takes any such evidence shall —

- (i) cause the evidence to be put in writing and certify that the evidence was taken by him, and

- (ii) cause the writing so certified to be sent to the Attorney-General; or

- (b) in the case of the production of documents or other articles, a magistrate may require the production of the documents or other articles and, where the documents or other articles are produced, he shall send the documents, or copies of the documents certified by him to be true copies, or the other articles, to the Attorney-General.

(3) The evidence of such a witness may be taken in the presence or absence of the person to whom the proceeding in the foreign country relates or of his legal representative, if any.

(4) The magistrate conducting a proceeding under subsection (2) may permit —

- (a) the person to whom the proceeding in the foreign country relates;

- (b) any other person giving evidence or producing documents or other articles at the proceeding before the magistrate; and
- (c) the relevant authority of the foreign country, to have legal representation at the proceeding before him.

(5) The certificate by the magistrate under subsection (2) shall state whether, when the evidence was taken or the documents or other articles were produced, any of the following persons were present —

- (a) the person to whom the proceeding in the foreign country relates or his legal representative, if any;
- (b) any other person giving evidence or producing documents or other articles or his legal representative, if any.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the person to whom the proceeding in the foreign country relates is competent but not compellable to give evidence.

PART III — Assistance in Relation to Search and Seizure

Requests by Botswana for search and

11. (1) This section shall apply to a proceeding or investigation relating to a criminal matter involving a serious offence against the laws of Botswana if there are reasonable grounds to believe that a thing relevant to the proceeding or investigation may be located in a foreign country to which this Act applies.

(2) Where this section applies to a proceeding or investigation, the Attorney-General may request an appropriate authority of the foreign country to obtain a warrant or other instrument authorising a search for a thing relevant to the proceeding or investigation and, if such a thing, or any other thing that is or may be relevant to the proceeding or investigation, as the case may be, is found pursuant to such a search, authorising the seizure of that thing.

(3) A request shall be accompanied by an affidavit by a person verifying the grounds on which the request is made.

Requests by
foreign countries for search and seizure

12. (1) Where —

- (a) a proceeding or investigation relating to a criminal matter involving a serious offence has commenced in a foreign country;
- (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a thing relevant to the investigation or proceeding is located in Botswana; and
- (c) the foreign country requests the Attorney-General to arrange for the issue of a search warrant under this section in relation to that thing, the Attorney-General may authorise a police officer, in writing, to apply to a magistrate in the district in which that thing is believed to be located for the search warrant requested by the foreign country.

(2) Where a police officer authorised under subsection (1) has reason to believe that the thing to which the request relates is, or will, at a specified time, be —

- (a) on a person;
- (b) in the clothing that is being worn by a person; or

(c) otherwise in a person's immediate control, the police officer may —

- (i) lay before a magistrate an information on oath setting out the grounds for that belief, and
- (ii) apply for the issue of a warrant under this section to search the person for that thing.

(3) Where an application is made under subsection (2), the magistrate may, subject to subsection (6), issue a warrant authorising a police officer (whether or not named in the warrant), with such assistance, and by such force, as is necessary and reasonable —

- (a) to search the person for the thing; and
- (b) to seize any thing found in the course of the search that the police officer believes, on reasonable grounds, to be relevant to the proceeding or investigation.

(4) Where a police officer authorised under subsection (1) has reason to believe that the thing to which the request relates is, or will, at a specified time, be, upon any land, or upon or in any premises, the police officer may —

- (a) lay before a magistrate an information on oath setting out the grounds for that belief; and
- (b) apply for the issue of a warrant under this section to search the land or premises for that thing.

(5) Where an application is made under subsection (4), the magistrate may, subject to subsection (6), issue a warrant authorising a police officer (whether or not named in the warrant), with such assistance, and by such force, as is necessary and reasonable —

- (a) to enter upon the land, or upon or into the premises;
- (b) to search the land or premises for the thing; and
- (c) to seize any thing found in the course of the search that the police officer believes, on reasonable grounds, to be relevant to the proceeding or investigation.

(6) A magistrate shall not issue a warrant under this section unless —

- (a) the informant or some other person has given to him either orally or by affidavit, such further information, if any, as he requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is sought; and
- (b) he is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant.

(7) There shall be stated in a warrant issued under this section —

- (a) the purpose for which the warrant is issued, including a reference to the nature of the criminal matter in relation to which the search is authorised;
- (b) whether the search is authorised at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night;
- (c) a description of the kind of things authorised to be seized; and
- (d) a day, not being later than one month after the issue of the warrant, on which the warrant ceases to have effect.

(8) If, in the course of searching, under a warrant issued under this section, for a thing of a kind specified in the warrant, the police officer finds another thing that he believes on reasonable grounds —

(a) to be relevant to the proceeding or investigation in the foreign country or to afford evidence as to the commission of a criminal offence; and

(b) is likely to be concealed, lost or destroyed if it is not seized, the warrant shall be deemed to authorise him to seize the other thing.

(9) Where a police officer finds, as a result of a search in accordance with a warrant issued under this section, a thing which he seizes wholly or partly because he believes the thing on reasonable grounds to be relevant to the proceeding or investigation in the foreign country, he shall deliver the thing into the custody and control of the Commissioner of Police.

(10) Where a thing is delivered into the custody and control of the Commissioner of Police under subsection (9), the Commissioner shall arrange for the thing to be kept for a period not exceeding one month from the day on which the thing was seized pending a direction in writing from the Attorney-General as to the manner in which the thing is to be dealt with (which may include a direction that the thing be sent to an authority of a foreign country).

(11) A police officer who executes a search warrant issued under subsection (3) or (5) shall, as soon as practicable after the execution of the warrant, give to the person, or give to the owner or occupier of the land or premises or leave in a prominent position on the land or at the premises, as the case requires, a notice setting out —

(a) the name and rank of the police officer;

(b) the name of the magistrate who issued the warrant and the day on which it was issued; and

(c) a description of any things seized and removed in accordance with the warrant.

(12) A police officer acting in accordance with a warrant issued under subsection (3) may remove, or require a person to remove, any of the clothing that the person is wearing but only if the removal of the clothing is necessary and reasonable for an effective search of the person under the warrant.

(13) A person shall not be searched under a warrant issued under subsection (3) except by a person of the same sex.

(14) Where a police officer is authorised, under a warrant issued under subsection (3), to search a person, the police officer may also search —

(a) the clothing that is being worn by the person; and

(b) any property in, or apparently in, the person's immediate control.

PART IV — Arrangements for Persons to give Evidence or Assist Investigations

13. (1) Where —

- (a) a proceeding relating to a criminal matter has commenced in Botswana; and
- (b) the Attorney-General is of the opinion that a person who is in a foreign country to which this Act applies —
  - (i) is a foreign prisoner,
  - (ii) is capable of giving evidence relevant to the proceeding, and
  - (iii) has given his consent to being removed to Botswana for the purpose of giving evidence in the proceeding,

Requests for removal of certain persons to Botswana

the Attorney-General may request the foreign country to authorise the attendance of the person at a hearing in connection with the proceeding.

(2) Where —

- (a) an investigation relating to a criminal matter has commenced in Botswana; and
- (b) the Attorney-General is of the opinion that a person who is in a foreign country to which this Act applies —
  - (i) is a foreign prisoner,
  - (ii) is capable of giving assistance in relation to the investigation, and
  - (iii) has given his consent to being removed to Botswana for the purposes of giving assistance in relation to the investigation, the Attorney-General may request the foreign country to authorise the removal of the person to Botswana for the purpose of giving assistance in relation to the investigation.

(3) Where the Attorney-General makes a request under subsection (1) or (2), he may make arrangements with an appropriate authority of the foreign country for the purposes of —

- (a) the removal of the person to Botswana;
- (b) the custody of the person while in Botswana;
- (c) the return of the person to the foreign country; and
- (d) other relevant matters.

14. Where —

- (a) a person is to be brought to Botswana from a foreign country pursuant to a request under section 13; and
- (b) the foreign country requests that the person be kept in custody while he is in Botswana,

Custody of certain persons

the person shall, while he is in Botswana or travelling to or from Botswana pursuant to the request, be kept in such custody as the Attorney-General directs in writing.

15. (1) Where a person is in Botswana —

- (a) pursuant to a request under section 13; or
- (b) to give evidence in a proceeding, or to give assistance in relation to an investigation, pursuant to a request made by or on behalf of the Attorney-General (not being a request under section 13) for international assistance in a criminal matter, the person, subject to subsection (2), shall not —

Immunities

- (i) be detained, prosecuted or punished in Botswana for any offence that is alleged to have been committed, or that was committed, before his departure from the foreign country pursuant to the request,
  - (ii) be subjected to any civil suit in respect of any act or omission of his that is alleged to have occurred, or that occurred, before the person's departure from the foreign country pursuant to the request, or
  - (iii) be required to give evidence in any proceeding in Botswana other than the proceeding to which the request relates, if any.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall cease to apply to a person if —
- (a) he has left Botswana; or
  - (b) he has had the opportunity of leaving Botswana and has remained in Botswana otherwise than for —
    - (i) the purpose to which the request relates,
    - (ii) the purpose of giving evidence in a proceeding in Botswana certified by the Attorney-General, in writing, to be a proceeding in which it is desirable that he gives evidence, or
    - (iii) the purpose of giving assistance in relation to an investigation in Botswana certified by the Attorney-General, in writing, to be an investigation in relation to which it is desirable that he gives assistance.

(3) A certificate given by the Attorney-General for the purposes of subsection (2) (b) (ii) or (iii) has effect from the day specified in the certificate (which may be a day before the day on which the certificate is given).

(4) This section binds the State.

Status of person prosecuted for offence committed after departure from foreign
country

16. (1) Where a person has come to Botswana pursuant to a request by Botswana under section 13 he shall be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be in Botswana pursuant to the request during any period during which he remains in Botswana for the purpose of being tried for a criminal offence under the laws of Botswana that he is alleged to have committed after his departure from the foreign country.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the person shall be kept in such custody as the Attorney-General directs under section 14.

Limitation on use of evidence given by certain persons

17. (1) Where —

(a) a person is in Botswana —

- (i) pursuant to a request under section 13, or
- (ii) to give evidence in a proceeding, or to give assistance in relation to an investigation, pursuant to a request made by or on behalf of the Attorney-General (not being a request under section 13) for international assistance in a criminal matter, and

(b) he has given evidence in the proceeding to which the request related or in a proceeding certified by the Attorney-General under section 15 (2) (b) (ii) in relation to him, that evidence shall not be admitted or otherwise used in any prosecution of him for an offence against the laws of Botswana, other than the offence of perjury in relation to the giving of that evidence.

(2) This section binds the State.

18. Where —

(a) a person is being held in custody in accordance with a direction of the Attorney-General under section 14; and

(b) the foreign country from which he has been brought requests his release from custody,

Release of certain persons upon request by foreign country

the Attorney-General shall direct that he be released from custody.

19. Any person who escapes from lawful custody while in Botswana pursuant to a request under section 13 shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.

Escaping

20. (1) Any police officer may, without warrant, arrest a person, if he has reasonable grounds to believe that the person —

Arrest of person who has escaped from custody

(a) has been brought to Botswana pursuant to a request under section 13; and

(b) has escaped from lawful custody while in Botswana pursuant to the request.

(2) A person who has been arrested pursuant to subsection (1) shall be returned to custody in accordance with this Act.

21. (1) Where —

Requests for giving of evidence at hearings in foreign countries

(a) a proceeding relating to a criminal matter has commenced in a foreign country;

(b) the foreign country requests the attendance at a hearing in connection with the proceeding of a prisoner who is in Botswana (whether or not in custody);

(c) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the prisoner is capable of giving evidence relevant to the proceeding; and

(d) the Attorney-General is satisfied that —

(i) the prisoner has consented to giving evidence in the foreign country, and

(ii) the foreign country has given adequate undertakings in respect of the matters referred to in subsection (3), the President may direct that the prisoner be released from prison for the purpose of travelling to the foreign country in the custody of a police officer or prison officer appointed by the Attorney-General to give evidence at the proceeding.

(2) Where —

(a) a proceeding relating to a criminal matter has commenced in a foreign country;

(b) the foreign country requests the attendance at a hearing in connection with the proceeding of a person who is in Botswana;

(c) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person is capable of giving evidence relevant to the proceeding; and

(d) the Attorney-General is satisfied that —

(i) the person has consented to giving evidence in the foreign country, and

(ii) that country has given adequate undertakings in respect of the matters referred to in subsection (3), the Attorney-General may make arrangements for the travel of the person to the foreign country.

(3) The matters in relation to which undertakings are to be given by a foreign country for the purpose of a request that a person give evidence in the foreign country are —

(a) that he shall not —

- (i) be detained, prosecuted or punished for any offence against the law of the foreign country that is alleged to have been committed, or that was committed, before his departure from Botswana,
- (ii) be subjected to any civil suit in respect of any act or omission of the person that is alleged to have occurred, or that occurred, before his departure from Botswana, or
- (iii) be required to give evidence in any proceeding in the foreign country other than the proceeding to which the request relates, unless he has left the foreign country and returned voluntarily; or he has had the opportunity of leaving the foreign country and has voluntarily remained in that country otherwise than for the purpose of giving evidence in the proceeding to which the request relates;

(b) that any evidence given by him in the proceeding to which the request relates will be inadmissible or otherwise disqualified from use in the prosecution of him for an offence against a law of the foreign country other than the offence of perjury in relation to the giving of that evidence;

(c) that he will be returned to Botswana in accordance with arrangements agreed by the Attorney-General;

(d) in a case where he is being held in custody in Botswana and the Attorney-General requests the foreign country to make arrangements for his keeping him in custody while he is in the foreign country —

- (i) the making of appropriate arrangements for that purpose,
- (ii) that he will not be released from custody in the foreign country unless the Attorney-General notifies an appropriate authority of the foreign country that he is entitled to be released from custody under the laws of Botswana, and
