- SCHEDULE

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 44 as read with section 45 of the Local Government Act and with the approval of the Minister of Local Government and Rural Development, the Kgalagadi District Council hereby makes the following Bye-laws —

1. These Bye-laws may be cited as the Kgalagadi District Council (Hawking and Street Vending) Bye-laws, 2016. Citation

2. In these Bye-laws, unless the context otherwise requires — Interpretation
'authorised official' means the Council Secretary or any employee of the Council duly authorised as such, in writing, by the Council;
'certificate' means a hawker's certificate of registration or a street vendor's certificate of registration, issued under bye-law 5;
'Council' means the Kgalagadi District Council;
'council area' means the area under the jurisdiction of the Council;
'hawker' means a person who carries on the business of selling goods from place to place within the council area, which business has an average monthly turnover of not more than P2 000;
'register' means a register kept under bye-law 8;
'Registrar' means the Council Secretary or any employee of the Council duly authorised as such, in writing, by the Council; and “street vendor” means a person who carries on the business of selling goods from a pitch or an identifiable temporary stand at which he or she stations himself or herself, either in a convenient public place or upon land which he or she has no right to control and within the council area, which business has an average monthly turnover of not more than P2000.

Prohibition of hawking or street vending without certificate

3. A person shall not carry on the business of a hawker or street vendor within the council area unless such person —

- (a) is a citizen of Botswana;
- (b) has attained the age of 16 years;
- (c) is the holder of a valid certificate issued in terms of these Bye-laws; and
- (d) is unemployed or is an employee of trades, sections of trades, industries and sections of industries for which the Minister may fix minimum wages in terms of the Fourth Schedule of the Employment Act.

Cap. 47:01
Application for certificate

4. (1) A person who wishes to carry on the business of a hawker or street vendor shall make an application to the Registrar in Form A set out in the Schedule, and shall supply such information as the Registrar may require and, in particular, specify —

- (a) the class of goods to be traded; and
  - (b) the area in which he or she wishes to trade.
- (2) An application under subbye-law (1) shall be accompanied by —
- (a) two photographs, approximately five by four centimeters in size, clearly depicting the face and shoulders of the applicant; and
  - (b) a copy of the applicant's national identity card issued in accordance with the National Registration Act.

Cap. 01:02
Issue of certificate

5. (1) The Registrar may, if he or she is satisfied that the requirements of these Bye-laws have been met, issue to the applicant, a hawker's certificate in Forms B set out in the Schedule, or a street vendor's certificate in Form C set out in the Schedule, as the case may be, subject to such conditions as he or she considers necessary or expedient, having regard to the provisions of these Bye-laws.

(2) The Registrar may refuse to issue a certificate to any person —

- (a) if the Registrar is satisfied that the issue of such certificate would be contrary to the public interest;
  - (b) in respect of a particular class of goods, if the Registrar is satisfied that the carrying on of business in respect of that class of goods would be contrary to the public interest;
  - (c) in respect of a particular area, if the Registrar is satisfied that carrying on of a business in such an area would be contrary to the public interest;
- or
- (d) for any other reason which the Registrar thinks is expedient having regard to the provisions of these Bye-laws.

Period of certificate

6. A certificate issued under bye-law 5 (1) shall, subject to the provisions of these Bye-laws, be valid for a period of two years.

Renewal of certificate

7. (1) An applicant may, upon expiry of a certificate issued under these Bye-laws, apply to the Registrar, in Form D set out in the Schedule, for renewal of his or her certificate for a further two year period.

(2) An application for renewal in terms of subbye-law (1) shall be made not later than one month before the expiry of the certificate and shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of P20.

(3) Subject to subbye-law (4), the Registrar shall renew the certificate and may attach such conditions to the certificate as he or she considers necessary.

- (4) The Registrar may refuse to renew a certificate if he or she is satisfied that —
- (a) the conditions of the certificate have not been complied with;
  - (b) these Bye-laws have not been complied with; or
  - (c) it is in the public interest not to renew such certificate.

8. (1) The Registrar shall keep and maintain a register of hawkers and street vendors.

Register of hawkers and street vendors

(2) The Registrar shall cause to be entered in such register the following particulars in respect of a holder of a hawker's certificate or a street vendor certificate —

- (a) his or her full names;
- (b) his or her certificate number;
- (c) the date of issue of the certificate;
- (d) the types of goods allowed to be sold as set out in the certificate;
- (e) the area in which such goods may be sold; and
- (f) any other particulars which the Registrar may consider necessary.

9. (1) The Registrar may issue a duplicate certificate upon payment by an applicant of an administration fee of P20 where he or she is satisfied that a certificate issued in terms of these Bye-Laws has been lost or destroyed.

Issue of duplicate certificate

(2) Where a person recovers a certificate which has been lost and replaced such person shall return the duplicate certificate to the Registrar.

10. A certificate issued under these Bye-Laws shall not without the consent of the Council, be hired, ceded, transferred, or in any way whatsoever made over to any other person:

Certificate not transferable

Provided that a certificate may be transferred upon the death of the holder to his or her legal representative.

11. (1) The Registrar may modify, suspend or cancel a certificate if the conditions of the certificate have not been complied with or if the continued use of the certificate constitutes a danger to public health:

Modification, suspension or cancellation of certificate

(2) The Registrar may, at any time, withdraw or cancel a certificate issued under these Bye-laws if —

- (a) the holder thereof purports to hire, cede, transfer or in any way whatsoever make over the certificate to any other person;
- (b) the holder thereof is subsequently convicted of an offence under these Bye-laws; or
- (c) in the opinion of the Registrar, it is in the interest of the public to do so:

Provided that the Registrar shall, where practicable, allow the holder of a certificate a period not exceeding two months to dispose of his or her existing stock.

12. (1) A hawker or street vendor shall —

Duties of hawkers and street vendors

- (a) at all times keep in a clean and sanitary condition all receptacles, instruments and other articles he or she uses in the conduct of his or her trade;
- (b) pick and remove any litter or refuse which, in or through the conduct of his or her trade, has been deposited, dropped or has fallen on any public place or private property;

- (c) at all times keep his her person clean while engaged in the conduct of his or her trade; and
  - (d) at the request of a police officer or authorised official remove his or her goods, vehicle or any other objects associated with his or her trade if such goods, vehicle or any other object associated with his or her trade is directly or indirectly obstructing traffic in any public place or obstructing the use of any public place, or causing a nuisance or danger to persons in the vicinity by means of his or her vehicle or goods.
- (2) A hawker or street vendor shall not —
- (a) trade in goods other than those specified in his or her certificate; or
  - (b) trade in areas other than those allowed by his or her certificate.
- (3) A hawker or street vendor who contravenes the provisions of this bye-law commits an offence.

Prohibited forms of hawking

- 13. (1) A hawker shall not —
- (a) trade on any private property without the consent of the owner, lessee, manager or occupier of the said property;
  - (b) erect or expose goods for sale in any tent, booth, stall, stand or similar structure;
  - (c) refuse, at the request of a police officer or an authorised official, to remove his or her goods, vehicle or any other objects associated with his or her trade, to permit the Council's sanitary staff to clear any area in which he or she is conducting his or her business; or
  - (d) hawk except between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.
- (2) A hawker who contravenes this bye-law commits an offence.

Prohibited forms of street vending

- 14. (1) A street vendor shall not —
- (a) erect any tent, booth, stall, stand or similar structure for purposes of selling goods unless authorised by the Council to erect such tent, booth, stall, stand or similar structure;
  - (b) refuse, at the request of a police officer or an authorised official, to remove his or her goods, vehicle or any other objects associated with his or her trade, to permit the Council's sanitary staff to clear any area in which he or she is conducting his or her business;
  - (c) when departing from the pitch at which he or she has been carrying on trade, leave behind goods, receptacles or other objects associated with his or her trade or leave such pitch in an unclean state;
  - (d) carry on business except between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m.; or
  - (e) trade in any private property without the consent of the owner, lessee, manager or occupier of the said property.
- (2) A street vendor who contravenes this bye-law commits an offence.
- (3) The Registrar may for purposes of subbye-law (1) (a) endorse on the licence the authorisation to erect a tent, booth, stall, stand or similar structure on the certificate issued under these Bye-laws.

Appeals

15. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under these Bye-Laws may appeal in writing to the Minister within 20 days of notification of the Registrar's decision.

Certificate to be produced for inspection

16. A holder of a certificate issued under these Bye-laws shall, on demand by a police officer or an authorised official, produce for inspection a certificate issued to him or her.

17. (1) A person who contravenes any of these Bye-laws commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P75 and for a second or subsequent offence, to a fine not exceeding P30 for every day during which the contravention continues:

Penalties

Provided that the total amount of the further fine shall not exceed P500.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under these Bye-laws may, in addition to any penalty imposed under subbye-law (1), have his or her goods impounded or confiscated.

18. The Kgalagadi District Council (Hawking and Street Vending) Bye-Laws are hereby repealed.

Repeal of S.I. 90
of 1998

19. Notwithstanding the repeal effected under regulation 18 —

Savings

- (a) anything made, given, issued or done under the repealed Regulations shall have the same effect as if it was made, given, issued or done under these Regulations; and
- (b) any legal proceedings which, before the coming into operation of these Regulations, were pending shall be continued or enforced in the same manner as they would have been continued or enforced before the coming into operation of these Regulations.
