- (i) any document or copy of a document obtained by the specified party in order to verify a person's identity.

(2) Records kept in terms of subsection (1) may be kept in electronic form.

(3) All information, data or documents collected under any customer due diligence process shall —

- (a) be kept up to date;
- (b) be updated every two years from the date a transaction is concluded; and
- (c) be made available swiftly to domestic competent authorities upon appropriate authority.

Period records to be kept

28. (1) A specified party shall keep records obtained through customer due diligence measures, account files and business correspondences and results of any analysis undertaken for 20 years from the date a transaction is concluded and after the termination of a business relationship.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), an investigatory authority may by request in writing, require a specified party to keep and maintain a record referred to under section 27 for such longer period as may be specified in the request.

29. (1) The duty imposed under section 27 on a specified party may be performed by a third party on behalf of the specified party.

(2) Where a specified party appoints a third party to perform duties imposed under section 27, the specified party shall forthwith provide the Agency with such particulars of the third party as may be prescribed.

(3) Where a third party fails to perform the duties imposed under section 27 the specified party shall be liable for the failure.

30. An electronic record kept in accordance with section 27, shall subject to the Electronic Records (Evidence) Act, be admissible as evidence in court.

31. (1) A specified party that fails to keep records in accordance with sections 27 and 28 shall be liable to a fine not exceeding P500 000 as may be imposed by the supervisory authority.

(2) A person who destroys or removes any record, register or document kept in accordance with this Part commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P500 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years or to both.

32. (1) An examiner of the Agency or supervisory authority shall have access to any record kept in accordance with section 27 and may make extracts from or copies of any such records.

(2) The Agency or a supervisory authority, may at any time cause to be carried out on the business premises of a specified party an examination and an audit of its books and records to check whether the specified party is complying with the requirements of this Act, or any guidelines, instructions or recommendations issued under this Act.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), an examiner may —

(a) by request in writing or orally require the specified party or any other person whom the Agency or supervisory authority reasonably believes has in its possession or control a document or any other information that may be relevant to the examination to produce the document or furnish the information as specified in the request;

(b) examine, and make copies of or take extracts from, any document or thing that he considers may be relevant to the examination;

(c) retain any document it deems necessary; and

(d) orally or in writing, require a person who is or apparently is an officer or employee of the specified party to give information about any document that an examiner considers any be relevant to the examination.

(4) The specified party, its officers and employees shall give the examiner full and free access to the records and other documents of the specified party as may be reasonably required for the examination.

- (e) conduct risk-based supervision of anti-money laundering, counter-financing of an act of terrorism and counter-financing of proliferation of arms of war or NBC weapons.

(2) A supervisory authority may —

- (a) issue a directive, penalising a specified party by imposing an appropriate, prescribed fine where the specified party has without reasonable excuse, failed to comply in whole or in part with any obligations under this Part; or
- (b) enter into an agreement with a specified party to implement an action plan to ensure compliance of the specified party's obligations under this Act.

Obligations of supervisory authorities

Obligations of accountable
institutions

45. An accountable institution shall —

- (a) have relevant documentation that explains its intended purpose and objectives;
- (b) provide for proper record keeping of financial statements with a detailed breakdown of income and expenditure;
- (c) have controls in place to ensure that all funds are fully accounted for and spent in a manner consistent with intended purposes and objectives; and
- (d) maintain a record of domestic and international transactions.

Receipt of information
by Agency

46. (1) The Agency may, for the purposes of assessing whether any information should be disseminated to an investigatory or supervisory authority, request further information in relation to a suspicious transaction from —

- (a) the specified party or person who made the report;
- (b) any other specified party that is, or appears to be involved in the transaction;
- (c) an investigatory authority;
- (d) a supervisory authority;
- (e) other administrative agencies of the Government; or
- (f) an accountable institution which made the report.

(2) The information requested under subsection (1) shall be provided without a court order within a reasonable time but not later than 10 working days after the request is made.

(3) Where any information referred to under subsection (1) is required to be supplied to the Agency within a specified period, the Agency may, at the request of the person or body concerned, extend such period.

(4) A person who refuses to supply information requested under this section commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P1 000 000 or to imprisonment to a term not exceeding 15 years or to both.

Referral of
by Agency

47. (1) Where the Agency, on the basis of its analysis and assessment of information received by it, has reasonable grounds to suspect that the information would be relevant to the national security of Botswana, the Agency shall disclose the information to the Directorate.

(2) The Agency shall record in writing, the reasons for its decision to disclose information in accordance with subsection (1).

(3) Where the Agency becomes aware of information which may be relevant to —

- (a) the functions of any supervisory authority;
- (b) investigation or prosecution being conducted by an investigatory authority; or
- (c) a possible corruption offence, as defined in the Corruption and Economic Crime Act,

Cap. 08:05

the Agency shall disclose the information to the supervisory authority or investigatory authority concerned.

(4) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (3), 'information' in relation to a financial transaction or the import and export of currency or monetary instruments includes —

- (a) the name of the person or the importer or exporter or any other person or entity acting on their behalf;
- (b) the name and address of the place of business where the transaction occurred or the address of the port of entry into Botswana where the importation or exportation occurred;
- (c) the date of the transaction, importation or exportation;

50. A certificate issued by the Agency that information specified in the certificate was reported to the Agency shall be admitted in evidence in court without proof or production of the original report.

Information
held by Agency

51. (1) No person shall be entitled to information held by the Agency except information disclosed in accordance with this Act.

(2) A person shall not disclose confidential information held by or obtained by the Agency except —

- (a) within the scope of that person's power and duties in terms of any legislation;
- (b) for the purposes of carrying out the functions of this Act; and
- (c) with the permission of the Director General.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P1 000 000 or to imprisonment to a term not exceeding 10 years or to both.

PART VII — General Provisions

Confidentiality
by Director
General, etc.

52. (1) The Director General and other officers of the Agency shall —

- (a) before they begin to perform any duties under this Act, take an oath of confidentiality in such form as may be prescribed; and
- (b) during and after their relationship with the Agency, maintain the confidentiality of any confidential information acquired in the discharge of their duties under this Act.

(2) No information from which an individual or body can be identified, which is acquired by the Agency in the course of carrying out its functions shall be disclosed by the Director General or other officer of the Agency except where the disclosure is necessary —

- (a) to enable the Agency to carry out its functions;
- (b) in the interests of the prevention or detection of any other offence;
- (c) in connection with the discharge of any international obligation to which Botswana is subject; or
- (d) pursuant to an order of court.

(3) Where the Director General or officer of the Agency contravenes this section he or she commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P50 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both.

53. (1) A third party shall not disclose confidential information received from the Agency.

Confidentiality
by third parties

(2) A third party who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P1 000 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

54. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Director General and every officer of the Agency shall file with the Directorate on Corruption and Economic Crime established under the Corruption and Economic Crime Act, a declaration of his or her assets and liabilities in such form as may be prescribed —

Declaration of assets by Director
General, etc.
Cap. 08:05

- (a) not later than 30 days after his or her appointment; and
- (b) on the termination of his or her appointment.

(2) Where, subsequent to a declaration made under subsection (1), the value of assets and liabilities of the Director General or officer is so altered as to be reduced or increased in value by a minimum of P200 000, the Director General or officer shall make a fresh declaration.

(3) A declaration of assets filed under this section shall not be disclosed to any person except with the consent of the Director General or officer concerned or by order of a court.

55. (1) No matter or thing done or omitted to be done by the Director General, an officer of the Agency, a specified party or accountable institution shall, if the matter or thing is done or omitted to be done bona fide in the course of the operations of the Agency, render the Director General, the officer of the Agency, the specified party, accountable institution, its directors or senior management personally liable to an action, claim or demand.

Indemnity of Director
General, etc.

(2) The Director General, officer of the Agency, specified party or accountable institution, its directors or senior management who receives and or makes a report under this Act shall not incur liability for any breach of confidentiality or any disclosure made in compliance with this Act.

56. (1) The Minister may, by Order published in the Gazette, amend the Schedules to this Act.

Power to amend Schedules

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Minister may amend Schedule I and III by —

- (a) adding to the list, a specified party and an accountable institution used or likely to be used in future to commit a financial offence; or
- (b) deleting from the list a specified party not used or unlikely to be used in future to commit a financial offence.

(3) The Minister shall, before amending Schedule I and III, give the affected persons at least 60 days' written notice to submit to the Minister written submissions on the proposed amendment.

Regulations

57. (1) The Minister may make regulations prescribing anything under this Act which is to be prescribed or which is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for the better carrying out of the objects and purposes of this Act, or to give force and effect to its provisions.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), regulations may provide for —

- (a) reporting obligations of a specified party and accountable institution;
- (b) regulatory obligations of a supervisory authority;
- (c) measures to ensure the security of information disclosed by or to the Agency;
- (d) internal rules to be formulated and implemented under sections 11;12 and 13 or
- (e) the manner and form which a specified party and an accountable institution shall keep records required under this Act.

Repeal of
Cap. 08:07
Savings

58. (1) The Financial Intelligence Act (hereinafter referred to as the "repealed Act") is hereby repealed.

59. (1) Notwithstanding the repeal effected under section 58, any instrument made under the repealed Act shall continue to have effect, as if made under this Act, to the extent that it is not inconsistent with this Act.

(2) Any person who is an officer or employee of the Agency immediately before the coming into operation of this Act shall continue in office for the period for which, and subject to the conditions under which he or she was appointed as an officer in the public service.

(3) Any enquiry or disciplinary proceedings which, before the coming into operation of this Act, were pending shall be continued or enforced by or against the Agency in the same manner as they would have been continued or enforced before the coming into operation of this Act.

(4) Any legal proceedings in respect of any offence committed or alleged to be committed under the repealed Act shall be carried out or prosecuted as if commenced under this Act.

(5) Any fines imposed by a supervisory authority under the repealed Act, shall continue as if imposed under this Act.

(6) Any decision or action taken or purported to have been taken or done by the Director General or supervisory authority under the provisions of the repealed Act, shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been taken or done under the corresponding provisions of this Act.
